

Dawn Oliveira is a resourceful Real Estate Agent serving Massachusetts and Rhode Island, who is passionate about helping buyers and sellers achieve their real estate goals and bring their vision to life. Her attention to detail, knowledge of real estate, and determination are the keys to matching clients with their dream properties.

Whether you are looking for your first home, your forever home, or need to sell your current home, Dawn has the experience and enthusiasm to make your next transaction smooth, rewarding, and memorable.

Licensed since 2001, Dawn has earned the respect and recognition of clients and peers who appreciate her professionalism and sincere devotion to helping people translate their dreams into reality. She truly enjoys getting to know her clients, learning what is important to them, and finding the perfect fit as they transition into or out of a home. It is incredibly fulfilling for her to help buyers find a space they fall in love with. Her understanding of current market trends, extensive local network, and experience using social media to drive results make her a valuable partner on your home journey.

Dawn puts clients at ease by handling every aspect of the transaction process and keeping them every step of the way. She loves helping someone make a life-changing decision. Being able to hand the keys to a client who's made what is likely the most expensive investment of their life and seeing their eyes light up is a wonderful feeling. Just knowing she has made a difference in the life of someone who trusted her gives her joy.

Outside of real estate, Dawn loves live music, spending time with her grandchildren and volunteering at the local food pantry.

If you would like to work with a real estate agent who believes in hard work, honest communication, and is always available for her clients, don't look any further.

Dawn is the real deal.
